

NATIONAL FARM SAFETY WEEK, 1958

April 8, 1958
[No. 3231]

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the health, prosperity, and well-being of our rural families are vital to the strength of the Nation; and

WHEREAS accidents suffered by the rural inhabitants of our land result in thousands of injuries and deaths each year and constitute a serious social and economic problem; and

WHEREAS experience has shown that these accidents can be reduced through educational programs directed towards safety precautions in the homes, in the fields, and on the highways:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, do hereby call upon the people of the Nation to observe the week beginning July 20, 1958, as National Farm Safety Week, and I urge all farm families and all persons allied with agriculture to join in a continuing campaign to prevent needless accidents in the homes, in the fields, and on the highways.

National Farm
Safety Week, 1958.

I also request all persons and organizations interested in the welfare of farm people to support and participate in National Farm Safety Week.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 8th day of April in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-eight, and of the [SEAL] Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-second.

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

By the President:

JOHN FOSTER DULLES,
Secretary of State.

UNITED STATES WORLD TRADE FAIR

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

April 9, 1958
[No. 3232]

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the Second Annual United States World Trade Fair is to be held at New York, New York, from May 7 to May 17, 1958, inclusive, for the purposes of exhibiting and promoting the sale of foreign and domestic products to the American trade and to the public; and

WHEREAS the Congress, by a joint resolution approved March 28, 1958 (72 Stat. 70), has authorized the President, by proclamation or in such other manner as he may deem proper, to invite the States of the Union and foreign countries to participate in the Second Annual United States World Trade Fair; and

WHEREAS this exhibition and trade gathering will tend to encourage further development of international trade and to foster friendly relations among participating nations:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, do hereby invite the States of the Union and foreign countries to participate in the Second Annual United States World Trade Fair to be held in the Coliseum in New York, New York, from May 7 to May 17, 1958, inclusive.

United States World
Trade Fair.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 9th day of April in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-eight, and of the [SEAL] independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-second.

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

By the President:

JOHN FOSTER DULLES,
Secretary of State.

CHILD HEALTH DAY, 1958

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the children of today will tomorrow shape the destiny of the world; and

WHEREAS the spiritual, mental, and physical well-being of our children is essential to the enrichment of their growing years and to the strength of their maturity; and 36 USC 143.

WHEREAS the Congress, by a joint resolution of May 18, 1928 (45 Stat. 617), authorized and requested the President of the United States to issue annually a proclamation setting apart May 1 as Child Health Day and calling for appropriate observance of that day; and

WHEREAS Child Health Day is also a fitting time for the people of the United States to observe a Universal Children's Day, as recommended by a resolution of the United Nations General Assembly, and to salute the work which the United Nations, through its specialized agencies, and the United Nations Children's Fund are doing to build better health for the coming generations:

Child Health Day,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate Thursday, the first day of May 1958, as Child Health Day, and I invite all persons and all agencies and organizations interested in the welfare of children to use that day as an occasion for rededication to those objectives designed to protect and promote the healthy growth of all children.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this ninth day of April in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-eight, and of [SEAL] the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-second.

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

By the President:

JOHN FOSTER DULLES,
Secretary of State.
